

111TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 838

Welcoming to the United States and to Washington, DC, His All Holiness Bartholomew, Archbishop of Constantinople, New Rome, Ecumenical Patriarch on his upcoming trip on October 20, 2009, through November 6, 2009.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 15, 2009

Mr. BILIRAKIS (for himself, Mrs. MALONEY, Mr. SARBANES, Ms. TSONGAS, Ms. TITUS, Mr. ROSKAM, Mr. SPACE, and Mr. GALLEGLY) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

RESOLUTION

Welcoming to the United States and to Washington, DC, His All Holiness Bartholomew, Archbishop of Constantinople, New Rome, Ecumenical Patriarch on his upcoming trip on October 20, 2009, through November 6, 2009.

Whereas Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew is the spiritual leader of nearly 300,000,000 Orthodox Christians around the world and millions of Orthodox Christians in the United States;

Whereas Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew is head of the largest Christian church headquartered in the Muslim world and convener of an ecumenical meeting which produced the first condemnation by Muslim leaders of the 9/11 attack on the United States as an anti-religious act;

Whereas the Ecumenical Patriarchate is the spiritual home of the world's oldest and second largest Christian church located in Istanbul, Turkey;

Whereas within the 2,000-year-old Sacred See of the Ecumenical Patriarchate, the New Testament was codified and the Nicene Creed was created;

Whereas the disappearance of the See would mean the end of a crucial link between the Christian and the Muslim world since the continuing presence of the Ecumenical Patriarchate in Turkey is a living testimony of religious co-existence since 1453;

Whereas Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew received on his first official visit to the United States in 1997, a gold medal, presented by the United States on behalf of the Congress in recognition of his outstanding and enduring contributions to religious understanding and peace, and was recognized by the United States in a manner reserved for a very small number of world leaders;

Whereas Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew's gold medal legislation received the highest number of members of the United States House of Representatives cosponsoring as any on record in the Congress or at the Library of Congress;

Whereas His All Holiness was the second living person in United States history allowed to be honored in the United States Capitol Rotunda as a recipient of the Congressional gold medal, the highest Congressional honor given to individuals like George Washington, Pope John Paul IV, and Winston Churchill, among others;

Whereas Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew is recognized in the United States and abroad as a leader in the quest for world peace, greater religious understanding, and respect for the Earth's environment;

Whereas Ecumenical Patriarchate Bartholomew was selected by Time Magazine as number 11 among 2008's 100 most influential people in the world;

Whereas Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew enhanced greater religious understanding by initiating a joint declaration that it is man's duty to protect the earth, signed by himself and Pope John Paul II, the spiritual leaders of nearly 1 out of every 5 people in the world;

Whereas Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew is called "the Green Patriarch" by leaders of the international environmental community;

Whereas Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew received the prestigious Sophie Prize of Norway for his environmental work and also the internationally recognized Binding Institute of Liechtenstein;

Whereas the prize money was donated by His All Holiness to UNICEF's fund for destitute children and for environmental projects;

Whereas Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew has led symposiums of international environmental leaders on the Adriatic, Aegean, Arctic, Baltic, and Black Seas, as well as the Amazon, Danube, and Mississippi Rivers, and His All Holiness was honored in New York through the Scenic Hudson River Initiative;

Whereas the Religious, Science, and Environmental (RSE) symposia are organized under the auspices of His All Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, the pioneer of this movement;

Whereas patrons of past symposia have included Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, Jacques Santer and Romano Prodi, Presidents of the European Commission, and United Nations Secretary-General Kofi Annan;

Whereas the symposia have also reached out across different faiths and denominations, revealing the wisdom of diverse theological traditions, as well as a common imperative to protect the natural world;

Whereas during the 2002 Adriatic Sea Symposium, Pope John Paul II and Patriarch Bartholomew signed a joint declaration underlining the spiritual duty of caring for God's creation in the interest of future generations; and

Whereas the outstanding accomplishments of Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew have been formally recognized and honored by numerous governmental, academic, and other institutions around the world: Now, therefore, be it

- 1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—
- 2 (1) welcomes to the United States and to Wash-
- 3 ington, DC, His All Holiness Bartholomew, Arch-
- 4 bishop of Constantinople, New Rome, Ecumenical
- 5 Patriarch, and recognizes the importance to the
- 6 United States and the world of the Ecumenical Pa-
- 7 triarch's recent environmental seminar conducted on
- 8 the Mississippi River with some of the world's lead-
- 9 ing environment experts;

1 (2) recognizes the importance to the United
2 States and to the world of Ecumenical Patriarch
3 Bartholomew's leadership on matters of environ-
4 ment, peace, and religion, and encourages United
5 States foreign policy makers to continue to urge
6 Turkey to grant religious freedom and property
7 rights to the Ecumenical Patriarchate as well as to 8 reopen the theological school at Halki; and
9 (3) offers whatever support the United States
10 can give to Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew's
11 noble efforts for the betterment of human kind.
